

Members' Day & AGM 2009 programme and agenda
Saturday, 10th October 2009

The Marshall Aerospace Conference Rooms, The Airport, Cambridge, CB5 8RX

09.30 Coffee & refreshments

09.45 Welcome and Introduction by Sir Charles Chadwyck-Healey

09.50 Living Landscapes in Cambridgeshire

Martin Baker, Conservation Manager for Cambridgeshire, will talk about the work of the Trust in Cambridgeshire.

10.10 Volunteering for conservation

Henry Stanier explains how Ecology Groups help to achieve the Trust's aims.

10.25 A new interest in wasps

An illustrated talk by Keith Balmer, Biodiversity Network Officer in Bedfordshire, who developed a passion for solitary wasps after attending a Wildlife Training Workshop.

10.40 Coffee

11.00 Reflections on a decade of change

Nick Hammond, retiring Chief Executive, will look back on the Trust's achievements over the last ten years and consider the things that we still need to do or to do better.

11.25 Our plans for the next decade

Brian Eversham, the new Chief Executive, will present plans to make the Trust even more effective.

11.50 Questions

12.05 Chairman's summing up and slight pause while we set up a table for the AGM

12.15 Annual General Meeting

Chaired by Barbara Young

13.15 Buffet lunch

14.00 Excursions to Fulbourn Fen and Cherry Hinton Chalk Pits

16.15 Return to Cambridge Airport